Attention: Henry Leeds: President

Dear Mr. Leeds,

As you were aware I had invested in a trucking company, Sharp Transportation Inc. located in Cambridge, Ontario Canada in 2004. I made a decision recently to return to Canada from Georgia to devote full time my efforts in building that company's market position while looking for ways to improve our margins of return.

I am writing this letter to thank you for the efforts that your company put forth in helping to accomplish those same goals for the organization I was previously involved with as the Chief Operating Officer, Metro Directories LLC of Atlanta, Georgia.

Your method of identifying areas of strength and deficiency in our sales group was essential to the programs of improvement that you helped us to design to move the company forward. The systems and techniques used by your company to identify candidates for our highly competitive sales force were successful at helping us to not only hire and train a better quality of candidate but allowed us to move toward meeting our goals in terms of revenue quality and attainment.

Should we be able to utilize the skills your professional organization brings to organizations looking for improvement I will not hesitate to do so. I do appreciate that your organization is "International" and Canada is certainly in need of an organization such as yours.

Sincerely,

Mark Radley
